

Wilmington Journal.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

FRIDAY, MARCH 23, 1873.

STATE NEWS.

Hail in Raleigh on Friday.
A dollar store in Charlotte.
Lenoir is to have a tobacco factory.
Herrings 50 cents per hundred in New Bern.

H. T. Carson has been elected Chief of the Raleigh Fire Department.
R. M. Douglas, the new U. S. Marshal for this State, will establish his office in Greenville instead of Raleigh.

Mr. Alex. Tillman, an aged citizen of Lenoir county, a few days ago killed at one shot nine wild turkeys out of a group of twelve.

On Sunday, 9th inst., while the family were at church, the house of Samuel Keets, of Surry county, was destroyed by fire. Loss $3,000.

The Salem Press says: A Littleton boy, Bro Brooks, committed suicide on the 16th of February last, by hanging himself.

Col. Walter Clark, of Halifax, and Eugene Morehead, Esq., of Greensboro', will sail for Europe about the first of March, to attend the great Exhibition at Vienna.

The Winston Sentinel says: Thomas Sulphur, Esq., one of the oldest and most respected citizens of our county, after a long illness, died at his residence on Wednesday, 12th inst., aged 73 years.

The Greensboro' Patriot says: A party of fifty-nine emigrants leave this week for the West. The disconsolate people must have somewhere to go, and they might as well go West as any place else.

The New York Press says: From a friend in Lincoln county, we learn that the stanchions and contents of Michael Wilkinson, at that place, was destroyed by fire, a few nights since.

The largest man on record, in modern times, was Miles Darden, a native of North Carolina, born in 1788. He was six feet six inches high. At his death, in 1857, he weighed a little over 1,000 pounds (?)

Rev. Dr. Pendleton, Chief of Artillery of the Army of Northern Virginia, was to have read his Memorial Address in Raleigh yesterday evening. He is traveling South in the interest of the Episcopal Church, at Lexington.

The Charlotte Messenger, in this place, is to have a new pastor. The charge has been tendered the Rev. Mr. Johnson, of Louisiana, and efforts are now being made to secure the required salary.

The New York Evening Post of Thursday says: Hiram Brown Hollister, author of "The Impending Crisis of the South," and other works, takes passage for London to-day upon the steamer Italy. In the course of a few weeks he proposes to visit Buenos Ayres.

The Federal News says: The meetings at the Baptist Church are progressing finely; we learn, the congregations being good, and much interest manifested in the services. Several persons have presented themselves as seekers of religion. Rev. J. D. Smith is aiding the pastor in the meetings.

The Northern Times says: We learn that P. R. Stanley, Esq., will resume the duties of President of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad on the 1st of April. It will be remembered that Mr. Stanley was a member of President pro tempore of the Southern Congress, the consequence of the illness of Mr. Slade.

The Raleigh Sentinel says: The government received information yesterday, officially, that W. G. Connor, adjoint Surgeon of the United States Marine Hospital Service, had resigned, unaccounted for, in consequence of holding the office of Assistant U. S. Senator for the Eastern District of North Carolina.

The Charlotte Observer says: A quantity of ore from the King's Mountain Gold Mine was assayed at the United States Bureau. Metal in this assay was found to be 17.17 ounces, and was valued at $1.31. It was recovered last night in express.

Phosphate for casting. The vein from which it was taken is yielding abundantly.

The Charlotte Observer says: We informed that there was a large sum in the country who had lost one due burning in his home for the past twenty-five years. The fire was kindled on the night of his marriage, and has been kept burning winter and summer, ever since. He may at length be permitted to die out, until he does.

A meeting of the "Corporators and all others interested," to take steps to organize the Halifax and Scotland Neck Railroad Company, will be held in the town of Halifax on Tuesday, the 20th of March. The corporators named are: Dr. Edward Conighan, Walter Clark, Dr. H. Smith, H. J. Hervey, W. H. Day, H. L. Tilley, John C. Randolph, and W. E. Bond.

In the Bishop's Budget seven Pennies to fifty thousand barrels of coal are obtained within an area of from forty to fifty miles around here, annually. The price has ranged, within the last four years, from $1.30 to $2.25 a barrel, and was valued at $1.31. It was recovered last night in express.

Phosphate for casting. The vein from which it was taken is yielding abundantly.

The Charlotte Observer says: We informed that there was a large sum in the country who had lost one due burning in his home for the past twenty-five years. The fire was kindled on the night of his marriage, and has been kept burning winter and summer, ever since. He may at length be permitted to die out, until he does.

A meeting of the "Corporators and all others interested," to take steps to organize the Halifax and Scotland Neck Railroad Company, will be held in the town of Halifax on Tuesday, the 20th of March. The corporators named are: Dr. Edward Conighan, Walter Clark, Dr. H. Smith, H. J. Hervey, W. H. Day, H. L. Tilley, John C. Randolph, and W. E. Bond.

In the Bishop's Budget seven Pennies to fifty thousand barrels of coal are obtained within an area of from forty to fifty miles around here, annually. The price has ranged, within the last four years, from $1.30 to $2.25 a barrel, and was valued at $1.31. It was recovered last night in express.

Phosphate for casting. The vein from which it was taken is yielding abundantly.

The Charlotte Observer says: We informed that there was a large sum in the country who had lost one due burning in his home for the past twenty-five years. The fire was kindled on the night of his marriage, and has been kept burning winter and summer, ever since. He may at length be permitted to die out, until he does.

A meeting of the "Corporators and all others interested," to take steps to organize the Halifax and Scotland Neck Railroad Company, will be held in the town of Halifax on Tuesday, the 20th of March. The corporators named are: Dr. Edward Conighan, Walter Clark, Dr. H. Smith, H. J. Hervey, W. H. Day, H. L. Tilley, John C. Randolph, and W. E. Bond.

In the Bishop's Budget seven Pennies to fifty thousand barrels of coal are obtained within an area of from forty to fifty miles around here, annually. The price has ranged, within the last four years, from $1.30 to $2.25 a barrel, and was valued at $1.31. It was recovered last night in express.

Phosphate for casting. The vein from which it was taken is yielding abundantly.

The Charlotte Observer says: We informed that there was a large sum in the country who had lost one due burning in his home for the past twenty-five years. The fire was kindled on the night of his marriage, and has been kept burning winter and summer, ever since. He may at length be permitted to die out, until he does.

A meeting of the "Corporators and all others interested," to take steps to organize the Halifax and Scotland Neck Railroad Company, will be held in the town of Halifax on Tuesday, the 20th of March. The corporators named are: Dr. Edward Conighan, Walter Clark, Dr. H. Smith, H. J. Hervey, W. H. Day, H. L. Tilley, John C. Randolph, and W. E. Bond.

In the Bishop's Budget seven Pennies to fifty thousand barrels of coal are obtained within an area of from forty to fifty miles around here, annually. The price has ranged, within the last four years, from $1.30 to $2.25 a barrel, and was valued at $1.31. It was recovered last night in express.

Phosphate for casting. The vein from which it was taken is yielding abundantly.

The Charlotte Observer says: We informed that there was a large sum in the country who had lost one due burning in his home for the past twenty-five years. The fire was kindled on the night of his marriage, and has been kept burning winter and summer, ever since. He may at length be permitted to die out, until he does.

A meeting of the "Corporators and all others interested," to take steps to organize the Halifax and Scotland Neck Railroad Company, will be held in the town of Halifax on Tuesday, the 20th of March. The corporators named are: Dr. Edward Conighan, Walter Clark, Dr. H. Smith, H. J. Hervey, W. H. Day, H. L. Tilley, John C. Randolph, and W. E. Bond.

In the Bishop's Budget seven Pennies to fifty thousand barrels of coal are obtained within an area of from forty to fifty miles around here, annually. The price has ranged, within the last four years, from $1.30 to $2.25 a barrel, and was valued at $1.31. It was recovered last night in express.

Phosphate for casting. The vein from which it was taken is yielding abundantly.

The Charlotte Observer says: We informed that there was a large sum in the country who had lost one due burning in his home for the past twenty-five years. The fire was kindled on the night of his marriage, and has been kept burning winter and summer, ever since. He may at length be permitted to die out, until he does.

A meeting of the "Corporators and all others interested," to take steps to organize the Halifax and Scotland Neck Railroad Company, will be held in the town of Halifax on Tuesday, the 20th of March. The corporators named are: Dr. Edward Conighan, Walter Clark, Dr. H. Smith, H. J. Hervey, W. H. Day, H. L. Tilley, John C. Randolph, and W. E. Bond.

In the Bishop's Budget seven Pennies to fifty thousand barrels of coal are obtained within an area of from forty to fifty miles around here, annually. The price has ranged, within the last four years, from $1.30 to $2.25 a barrel, and was valued at $1.31. It was recovered last night in express.

Phosphate for casting. The vein from which it was taken is yielding abundantly.

The Charlotte Observer says: We informed that there was a large sum in the country who had lost one due burning in his home for the past twenty-five years. The fire was kindled on the night of his marriage, and has been kept burning winter and summer, ever since. He may at length be permitted to die out, until he does.

A meeting of the "Corporators and all others interested," to take steps to organize the Halifax and Scotland Neck Railroad Company, will be held in the town of Halifax on Tuesday, the 20th of March. The corporators named are: Dr. Edward Conighan, Walter Clark, Dr. H. Smith, H. J. Hervey, W. H. Day, H. L. Tilley, John C. Randolph, and W. E. Bond.

In the Bishop's Budget seven Pennies to fifty thousand barrels of coal are obtained within an area of from forty to fifty miles around here, annually. The price has ranged, within the last four years, from $1.30 to $2.25 a barrel, and was valued at $1.31. It was recovered last night in express.

Phosphate for casting. The vein from which it was taken is yielding abundantly.

The Charlotte Observer says: We informed that there was a large sum in the country who had lost one due burning in his home for the past twenty-five years. The fire was kindled on the night of his marriage, and has been kept burning winter and summer, ever since. He may at length be permitted to die out, until he does.

A meeting of the "Corporators and all others interested," to take steps to organize the Halifax and Scotland Neck Railroad Company, will be held in the town of Halifax on Tuesday, the 20th of March. The corporators named are: Dr. Edward Conighan, Walter Clark, Dr. H. Smith, H. J. Hervey, W. H. Day, H. L. Tilley, John C. Randolph, and W. E. Bond.

In the Bishop's Budget seven Pennies to fifty thousand barrels of coal are obtained within an area of from forty to fifty miles around here, annually. The price has ranged, within the last four years, from $1.30 to $2.25 a barrel, and was valued at $1.31. It was recovered last night in express.

Phosphate for casting. The vein from which it was taken is yielding abundantly.

The Charlotte Observer says: We informed that there was a large sum in the country who had lost one due burning in his home for the past twenty-five years. The fire was kindled on the night of his marriage, and has been kept burning winter and summer, ever since. He may at length be permitted to die out, until he does.

A meeting of the "Corporators and all others interested," to take steps to organize the Halifax and Scotland Neck Railroad Company, will be held in the town of Halifax on Tuesday, the 20th of March. The corporators named are: Dr. Edward Conighan, Walter Clark, Dr. H. Smith, H. J. Hervey, W. H. Day, H. L. Tilley, John C. Randolph, and W. E. Bond.

In the Bishop's Budget seven Pennies to fifty thousand barrels of coal are obtained within an area of from forty to fifty miles around here, annually. The price has ranged, within the last four years, from $1.30 to $2.25 a barrel, and was valued at $1.31. It was recovered last night in express.

Phosphate for casting. The vein from which it was taken is yielding abundantly.

The Charlotte Observer says: We informed that there was a large sum in the country who had lost one due burning in his home for the past twenty-five years. The fire was kindled on the night of his marriage, and has been kept burning winter and summer, ever since. He may at length be permitted to die out, until he does.

A meeting of the "Corporators and all others interested," to take steps to organize the Halifax and Scotland Neck Railroad Company, will be held in the town of Halifax on Tuesday, the 20th of March. The corporators named are: Dr. Edward Conighan, Walter Clark, Dr. H. Smith, H. J. Hervey, W. H. Day, H. L. Tilley, John C. Randolph, and W. E. Bond.

In the Bishop's Budget seven Pennies to fifty thousand barrels of coal are obtained within an area of from forty to fifty miles around here, annually. The price has ranged, within the last four years, from $1.30 to $2.25 a barrel, and was valued at $1.31. It was recovered last night in express.

Phosphate for casting. The vein from which it was taken is yielding abundantly.

The Charlotte Observer says: We informed that there was a large sum in the country who had lost one due burning in his home for the past twenty-five years. The fire was kindled on the night of his marriage, and has been kept burning winter and summer, ever since. He may at length be permitted to die out, until he does.

A meeting of the "Corporators and all others interested," to take steps to organize the Halifax and Scotland Neck Railroad Company, will be held in the town of Halifax on Tuesday, the 20th of March. The corporators named are: Dr. Edward Conighan, Walter Clark, Dr. H. Smith, H. J. Hervey, W. H. Day, H. L. Tilley, John C. Randolph, and W. E. Bond.

In the Bishop's Budget seven Pennies to fifty thousand barrels of coal are obtained within an area of from forty to fifty miles around here, annually. The price has ranged, within the last four years, from $1.30 to $2.25 a barrel, and was valued at $1.31. It was recovered last night in express.

Phosphate for casting. The vein from which it was taken is yielding abundantly.

The Charlotte Observer says: We informed that there was a large sum in the country who had lost one due burning in his home for the past twenty-five years. The fire was kindled on the night of his marriage, and has been kept burning winter and summer, ever since. He may at length be permitted to die out, until he does.

A meeting of the "Corporators and all others interested," to take steps to organize the Halifax and Scotland Neck Railroad Company, will be held in the town of Halifax on Tuesday, the 20th of March. The corporators named are: Dr. Edward Conighan, Walter Clark, Dr. H. Smith, H. J. Hervey, W. H. Day, H. L. Tilley, John C. Randolph, and W. E. Bond.

In the Bishop's Budget seven Pennies to fifty thousand barrels of coal are obtained within an area of from forty to fifty miles around here, annually. The price has ranged, within the last four years, from $1.30 to $2.25 a barrel, and was valued at $1.31. It was recovered last night in express.

Phosphate for casting. The vein from which it was taken is yielding abundantly.

The Charlotte Observer says: We informed that there was a large sum in the country who had lost one due burning in his home for the past twenty-five years. The fire was kindled on the night of his marriage, and has been kept burning winter and summer, ever since. He may at length be permitted to die out, until he does.

A meeting of the "Corporators and all others interested," to take steps to organize the Halifax and Scotland Neck Railroad Company, will be held in the town of Halifax on Tuesday, the 20th of March. The corporators named are: Dr. Edward Conighan, Walter Clark, Dr. H. Smith, H. J. Hervey, W. H. Day, H. L. Tilley, John C. Randolph, and W. E. Bond.

In the Bishop's Budget seven Pennies to fifty thousand barrels of coal are obtained within an area of from forty to fifty miles around here, annually. The price has ranged, within the last four years, from $1.30 to $2.25 a barrel, and was valued at $1.31. It was recovered last night in express.

Phosphate for casting. The vein from which it was taken is yielding abundantly.

The Charlotte Observer says: We informed that there was a large sum in the country who had lost one due burning in his home for the past twenty-five years. The fire was kindled on the night of his marriage, and has been kept burning winter and summer, ever since. He may at length be permitted to die out, until he does.

A meeting of the "Corporators and all others interested," to take steps to organize the Halifax and Scotland Neck Railroad Company, will be held in the town of Halifax on Tuesday, the 20th of March. The corporators named are: Dr. Edward Conighan, Walter Clark, Dr. H. Smith, H. J. Hervey, W. H. Day, H. L. Tilley, John C. Randolph, and W. E. Bond.

In the Bishop's Budget seven Pennies to fifty thousand barrels of coal are obtained within an area of from forty to fifty miles around here, annually. The price has ranged, within the last four years, from $1.30 to $2.25 a barrel, and was valued at $1.31. It was recovered last night in express.

Phosphate for casting. The vein from which it was taken is yielding abundantly.

The Charlotte Observer says: We informed that there was a large sum in the country who had lost one due burning in his home for the past twenty-five years. The fire was kindled on the night of his marriage, and has been kept burning winter and summer, ever since. He may at length be permitted to die out, until he does.

A meeting of the "Corporators and all others interested," to take steps to organize the Halifax and Scotland Neck Railroad Company, will be held in the town of Halifax on Tuesday, the 20th of March. The corporators named are: Dr. Edward Conighan, Walter Clark, Dr. H. Smith, H. J. Hervey, W. H. Day, H. L. Tilley, John C. Randolph, and W. E. Bond.

In the Bishop's Budget seven Pennies to fifty thousand barrels of coal are obtained within an area of from forty to fifty miles around here, annually. The price has ranged, within the last four years, from $1.30 to $2.25 a barrel, and was valued at $1.31. It was recovered last night in express.

Phosphate for casting. The vein from which it was taken is yielding abundantly.

The Charlotte Observer says: We informed that there was a large sum in the country who had lost one due burning in his home for the past twenty-five years. The fire was kindled on the night of his marriage, and has been kept burning winter and summer, ever since. He may at length be permitted to die out, until he does.

A meeting of the "Corporators and all others interested," to take steps to organize the Halifax and Scotland Neck Railroad Company, will be held in the town of Halifax on Tuesday, the 20th of March. The corporators named are: Dr. Edward Conighan, Walter Clark, Dr. H. Smith, H. J. Hervey, W. H. Day, H. L. Tilley, John C. Randolph, and W. E. Bond.

In the Bishop's Budget seven Pennies to fifty thousand barrels of coal are obtained within an area of from forty to fifty miles around here, annually. The price has ranged, within the last four years, from $1.30 to $2.25 a barrel, and was valued at $